United States of America
1776-1976

Instructions for removing creases prior to framing.

1. Unfold your copy of the "Declaration of Independence"
2. Place printing face down on ironing board.
3. Set steam iron on "cotton" setting.
4. When iron is at proper temperature, set for "steam" and proceed to iron out creases.

Note: Some traces of the fold creases will still be slightly visible. When framed behind glass the traces of folding will be negligible.

5. If you would prefer an added "antique" look, sprinkle droplets of water over surface of printed side and let air-dry. Do not iron again.
